Political Rallies Planned Across Chennai During Rahul Gandhi's Visit

Chennai

Rahul Gandhi is scheduled to visit Chennai as part of election campaigning in Tamil Nadu, with plans to cover three districts and address multiple public meetings to strengthen party outreach ahead of upcoming electoral activity. With political campaigning expected to draw gatherings and movement across key locations in and around Chennai, individuals and organisations should anticipate localized traffic congestion, increased security presence and crowd-related disruptions, and plan travel and routine activities accordingly while monitoring local advisories.

Uppal Metro Bomb Threat: Hoax Triggers Panic

Hyderabad

A bomb threat call at Uppal Metro Station in Hyderabad caused panic among commuters, prompting immediate action by police, bomb disposal, and dog squads. After a thorough search of the station, authorities confirmed that the threat was a hoax with no explosives found. An investigation has been launched to identify the person behind the fake call, while metro services resumed normal operations shortly after the clearance.

India Evacuates 2,361 Citizens from Iran Amid Conflict

The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) has confirmed that 2,361 Indian citizens have been safely brought back from Iran since the start of the West Asia conflict. Most evacuees were routed through Armenia (2,060) and Azerbaijan (301) before returning to India. The evacuation includes a large number of students and stranded nationals, highlighting India's ongoing efforts to ensure the safety of its citizens in conflict zones. Authorities continue to monitor the situation and support further movement if required.
