Hanuman Jayanti Triggers Traffic Curbs and Security Alert Across Cities

Authorities have imposed heightened security and traffic restrictions across Mumbai, Hyderabad, and Delhi on April 2 due to Hanuman Jayanti processions, with multiple rallies, route diversions, and restrictions expected to cause heavy congestion and controlled movement. In Delhi, security has been further intensified following the arrest of a Lashkar-e-Taiba handler who was allegedly planning attacks on major temples and crowded areas, prompting increased surveillance and police deployment. The situation may disrupt employee commute, logistics, and business operations across key urban corridors. Companies should monitor advisories, plan alternate routes, reschedule logistics, and consider flexible work arrangements to ensure continuity.

Kolkata Protests Trigger Security Clamp & Traffic Curbs

Kolkata

Clashes between political groups near the Chief Electoral Officer's office in central Kolkata led to expanded prohibitory orders, heavy security deployment, and traffic diversions across key stretches around Strand Road and nearby areas; with election-related activity increasing, similar restrictions and heightened security presence are likely in sensitive zones, so both the public and organisations should stay prepared for sudden movement curbs, avoid high-risk areas, and plan flexible routes and schedules to manage disruptions.

Public Unrest Grows in Bengaluru as Incomplete Infrastructure Projects Trigger Protests Across IT Hub

Bengaluru

Residents are protesting against delayed and incomplete flyover and infrastructure projects, which they say are making traffic and daily commuting worse in the Rajarajeshwari Nagar and Dommasandra areas, worsening traffic congestion and taking a longer time. It also creates daily disruption for commuters and employees, with some businesses saying poor roads and delays are hurting productivity and operations. Such as fast tracking the delayed flyover work, improving road coordination, and reducing congestion at key choke points. Officials have also proposed new roads, double-decker corridors, tunnel roads, and better footpaths, especially around major traffic corridors like the Outer Ring Road and entry-exit points.

India Air Quality Alert: Unhealthy Pollution Levels Across Cities

Air quality across India remains poor, with many major cities reporting “unhealthy” to “very unhealthy” levels due to high PM_{2.5} pollution. Cities including Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru, and Hyderabad are affected, posing health risks especially for children, elderly, and people with respiratory issues. Pollution levels can change quickly based on weather, but without major improvements, conditions may remain unhealthy. Individuals and organisations should limit outdoor exposure, monitor real-time AQI updates, and plan activities accordingly to reduce health and operational impacts.
